

KURUKSHETRA: A LIFE · 29 OCTOBER 2026

Art brief: pictures required

Everything from the earlier briefs has been delivered and is in the game: the 29 test stages and the 12 tall fight backgrounds, the 25 16:9 backgrounds, the homeland, festival and journey paintings, the three Mathura paintings and the period repaints. This brief lists what is still needed, in priority order, with a thumbnail of the current picture wherever one exists.

Priority	What	Images	Shape
1 Required	Three fight-background fixes and one portrait fix	4	9:16, 3:4
2 Recommended	16:9 fight backgrounds for wide screens; 16:9 versions of the endings, the war days, the charioteer homeland and the nine most-seen scenes	36	16:9
3 Optional	16:9 versions of every other scene, event, homeland-life and festival painting; a sharper Steam library hero	43	16:9, 3840×1240
Total		83

Not for the artist: the five 1920×1080 Steam screenshots are captured from the game, not painted; Claude can capture them. Advisory and Hindi reviews are reviews, not pictures, and are listed at the end.

RULES

Rules for every image

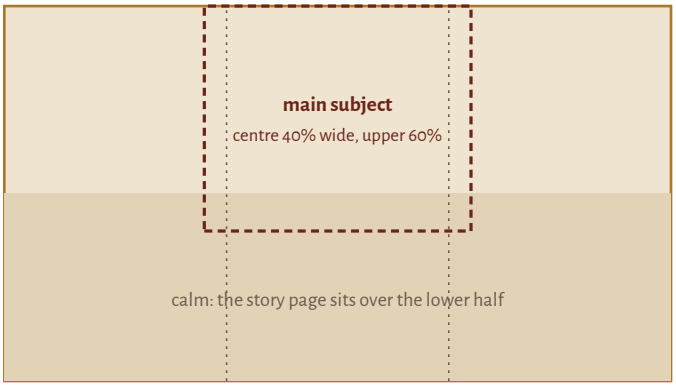

Rule	Detail
Style	Match the paintings already in the game: warm, painterly, detailed early-historic India; golden-hour or lamplit; the same hand as the fair, the homelands, the war days and the test stages.
Extend, don't recompose	A 16:9 version is the same painting as today's 3:1 banner, extended (more sky above, more ground below) with the same scene, light and figures. Repaint at 16:9 in the same style only where extending fails.
Size	Render at native size, never enlarged from a small image: 16:9 at 2560×1440 (at least 1920×1080); 9:16 at 1080×1920; portraits 3:4 at 900×1200. JPG, sRGB.
No text	No painted words, labels, numbers, signatures, watermarks or banners with writing. The game sets all text so it can be translated.
Period	Timber, brick and stone towns; courtyards, gateways, thatch. No domes, Gothic spires, castle towers, colonnades, Greek or Roman columns, upturned East Asian roofs or later temple spires. Straw or clay targets, never bullseyes. Dice are long four-sided bars, never cubes. No European swords, Greek helmets or muscle cuirasses.
Emblems	Plain cloth banners or simple early-historic emblems (sun, lamp, elephant, bow, lotus). No crescents or stars.
Content	Violence implied: no blood, gore or bodies. No Krishna or other divine figures shown. Draupadi in the dice scenes: show the hall and the court's reaction, never her humiliation. Canon characters need advisory review before public use.
Fight and stage art	No people up close: the game's shadow puppets are the actors. Small, soft distant crowds are fine. Keep the ground band open and level (see layouts B and C).
Rights	Only images made or licensed for this project: no photos, TV-serial stills, comic panels or images found online. Say which pieces are AI-generated; Steam requires disclosure.

LAYOUTS

Where things sit on screen

The puppets, cards and story page are drawn by the game over the painting, so leave their areas open and calm.

A. 16:9 scene painting (2560×1440)

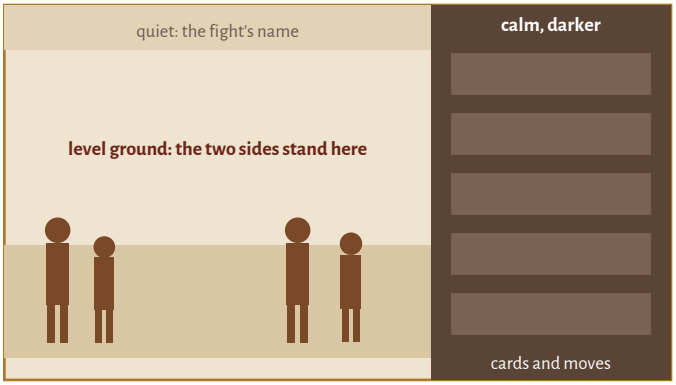

dotted lines: what an upright phone shows

A · 16:9 scene painting

- Used for every 16:9 version in Priorities 2 and 3.
- Keep the main subject in the centre 40% of the width and the upper 60% of the height.
- An upright phone shows only about the centre third of the width.
- Keep the lower half calm (ground, water, floor, a crowd in shadow): the story page lies over it.

B. 16:9 fight background (2560×1440)

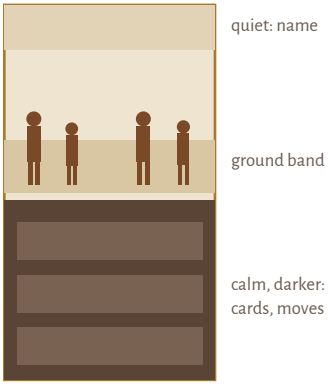

laptops, desktops, tablets held sideways

B · 16:9 fight background

- Used for the 12 new fight backgrounds in Priority 2 (table 2A).
- A level, open ground across the lower third of the left two-thirds: the two sides stand there, two or more figures each.
- The right third calmer and darker: the sides' strength, the last lines of the fight and the moves sit there on cards.
- A quiet strip at the top left for the fight's name.

C. 9:16 fight (1080×1920)

phones

C · 9:16 fight background

- Used for the three tall fight fixes in Priority 1; match the tall fight backgrounds already delivered.
- A quiet top for the fight's name.
- A ground band across the middle, where the figures stand.
- A calm, darker lower half: the cards and moves cover it.

PRIORITY 1 · REQUIRED · 4 IMAGES

Fixes

Three fight backgrounds and one portrait break the period rules. Retouch in place where possible: same file name, same size, same light.

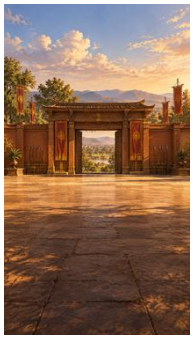

fight_camp_gate_night_tall

Redo · 1080×1920 (9:16) · layout C

Used for: Ashwatthama at the camp gate; standing in his way (the night raid after the war).

What is wrong: The sun is a black eclipse disc with a red ring, which reads as an omen rather than night, and the banners carry crescent-moon emblems.

Paint: The Pandava camp gate at night: a timber gate with a torch on each side, sleeping tents dark beyond, embers in the air. A normal moon or none; plain banners. Ground band across the middle, calm darker lower half. No people.

fight_drupada_yard_tall

Retouch · 1080×1920 (9:16) · layout C

Used for: The raid on Panchala.

What is wrong: The gateway has upturned East Asian eaves, like a Chinese paifang.

Paint: Repaint the gateway only: a gatehouse of timber and brick with a flat or gently sloping roof and carved wooden beams (a torana-like gate). Keep the yard, flagstones, spears and light.

fight_swayamvara_tall

Retouch · 1080×1920 (9:16) · layout C

Used for: The brawl at Draupadi's swayamvara.

What is wrong: The red columns have Greek or Roman capitals and a classical beam above them.

Paint: Repaint the pillars as carved timber pillars with bracket capitals, and the beam as plain timber. Keep the hall, the reflective floor, the lamps and the target pole.

p_abhimanyu

Retouch · 900×1200 (3:4)

Used for: Abhimanyu's portrait: the bonds panel, speakers, allies and the wheel ending.

What is wrong: He wears a Greek muscle cuirass and holds a crested Corinthian helmet.

Paint: Keep his face, age, smile and pose. Replace the armour with early-historic Indian war dress: a quilted cotton or scale-armour jacket over a dhoti, an upper cloth, arm bands, a sword belt. Instead of the helmet, a simple cloth turban or a plain metal cap. Canon character: advisory review.

PRIORITY 2 · RECOMMENDED · 36 IMAGES

16:9 paintings for wide screens

Tests and fights now play full-screen on their painting, and every scene's painting fills the screen behind the story. Where a 16:9 version exists the game uses it; otherwise it shows the older 3:1 banner, softened, with a blurred fill around it.

2A · Fight backgrounds (12)

New 16:9 versions of the 12 tall fight backgrounds, for laptops, desktops and tablets held sideways (phones keep the tall ones). Same place and light as the tall version shown, recomposed for layout B. Deliver as the name below plus .jpg (no _tall). The sparring trial and the night battle already have 16:9 stages. Every prompt ends with: wide 16:9 painting, painterly Indian epic style, warm light, no people in the foreground, no text, quiet top, level open ground across the lower third of the left two-thirds, calmer and darker right third.

Tall version	Deliver	Fights	Paint
	fight_war_field.jpg	Day 1; the wheel (day 13); day 16; the last battle (day 18)	Kurukshetra by day: churned earth across the lower third, distant lines of chariots and banners in dust, a pale sky; no bodies or blood fight_war_chariot.jpg	Guarding the king; the drive for the king	Around a royal chariot with a white parasol, seen from the side at a distance; dust and banners; the ground clear in front
	fight_war_sunset.jpg	The road to Jayadratha; guarding Jayadratha (day 14)	The battlefield at sunset, the sun low and red, long shadows across a rutted road
	fight_war_camp.jpg	Dushasana's men	The edge of a war camp: tents, spear stacks and banners behind a trampled open space
	fight_camp_gate_night.jpg	Ashwatthama at the gate; standing in his way	The Pandava camp gate at night: a timber gate with a torch on each side, sleeping tents dark beyond, embers in the air; a normal moon or none, plain banners (see Priority 1)
	fight_fair_ring.jpg	Ugra at the fair (wrestling)	A sand wrestling ring at a spring fair: a rope ring on poles, stalls and bunting far behind, crowds tiny and soft

	fight_drupada_yard.jpg	The raid on Panchala	Drupada's palace yard: flagstones, a timber-and-brick gatehouse with a flat or gently sloping roof, guards' spears leaning by the gate
	fight_border_road.jpg	The border villages	A village road at the border: a burning cart, thatched huts, a field on each side, smoke
	fight_swayamvara.jpg	The brawl at the swayamvara	Drupada's swayamvara hall in disorder: overturned seats, garlands on the floor, carved timber pillars and lamps, the target pole high in the middle distance
	fight_forest_road.jpg	After Jayadratha's chariot; bandits on the road	A forest road: a cart track through tall sal trees, dappled light, ferns at the sides
	fight_royal_camp.jpg	The Gandharva ambush	A royal hunting camp in the forest: silk tents, a fire pit, the forest close behind, dusk
	fight_grazing.jpg	Sudatta's men; the cattle raid on Matsya	Open grazing land: a fence across a field, cattle far off in dust, a few trees, wide sky

2B · 16:9 versions of today's paintings (24)

Same painting, extended to 16:9 (layout A). Deliver as the current name plus _wide.jpg.

Endings (9): seen at the end of every life

Today (3:1)	Deliver	Scene	Notes
	end_elder_wide.jpg	The wise elder end_forest_wide.jpg	Renunciation
	end_teller_wide.jpg	The teller
	end_vengeance_wide.jpg	Vengeance
	end_survivor_wide.jpg	The homecoming
	end_broken_wide.jpg	Broken survivor
	end_river_wide.jpg	The wanderer
	end_death_wide.jpg	Glorious death; Fallen at Kurukshetra	Keep the lamp emblem on the banner (not a sun); no blood.
	end_wheel_wide.jpg	Into the wheel	Follows Abhimanyu; keep him young and not in Greek armour.

Steam library hero (1)

steam_library_hero

Optional · 3840×1240 · no text

The current hero meets Steam's rules and stays in use. It was enlarged from a smaller painting, so it is slightly soft when seen at full size on a 4K screen. If a sharper one is wanted: the same composition (two armies across Kurukshetra at sunrise) painted at 3840×1240, critical content inside the centre 860×380 safe area, the centre bottom and left bottom kept calm for the logo, no text.

ALSO

Not for the artist

- Steam screenshots (5). 1920×1080 captures of real play: a scene with its painting and story, an archery test on its painting, a board game, a fight, an ending. Captured from the game, not painted.
- Advisory review. Canon portraits; every living painting (faces, hands, canon figures); Draupadi in the dice and exile images; the key art; Karna's face in war_day16 and war_day17.
- Hindi logo. A native reader's check of logo_hi.

Delivery

- Name every file exactly as in the tables: a fix keeps its current name; a 16:9 scene is the current name plus _wide.jpg; a 16:9 fight is the name in table 2A plus .jpg.
- Upload to art_review/ in the GitHub repo (one folder per batch), or attach a zip in the chat. Partial batches are fine; Priority 1 first.
- The game uses each picture as soon as it arrives and keeps the current one until then.
- Include a note of which pieces are AI-generated and which tool made them, for the Steam disclosure.

Checklist before sending

☐	Native size, the right shape: 16:9 at 2560×1440, 9:16 at 1080×1920, 3:4 at 900×1200 (the optional hero at 3840×1240)
☐	JPG, sRGB; 16:9 under 1 MB, 9:16 under 600 KB, portraits under 300 KB
☐	Same scene, light and figures as today's painting (16:9 versions)
☐	Layout respected: subject in the centre and upper area, calm lower half (A); open ground and a calm right third (B); ground band across the middle (C)
☐	No text, signatures or watermarks
☐	Period details right: no domes, spires, colonnades, Greek columns or helmets, East Asian roofs, crescents, bullseyes, cube dice or European swords
☐	No blood or gore; no divine figures; Draupadi shown with dignity
☐	Made or licensed for this project; AI use noted
